George Robert Kane Memorial Scholarship
Application for Summer/Fall 2012

In memory of long-time member George Robert Kane (Oct. 6, 1913 – Nov. 28, 2009), the Northern California Chapter of the Antiquarian Booksellers' Association of America announces the availability of an Educational Scholarship. In the interest of promoting professionalism and education relevant to the antiquarian book trade, persons currently working in or actively pursuing a career in the book trade are especially encouraged to apply. The Scholarship will pay tuition cost (to $1,200) for participation in a course of study offered by the following programs in the Summer/Fall of 2012:

California Rare Book School (Los Angeles)
Colorado Antiquarian Book Seminar (Colorado Springs)
Rare Book School (Charlottesville, Virginia)

Applications will be accepted until 5:00 p.m., May 11, 2012. The NCC/ABAA will notify scholarship applicants of its award decision via email by May 25, 2012. Scholarship applications may be submitted via an email attachment to the Chapter Secretary, Chris Lowenstein, at chris@bookhuntersholiday.com or by regular mail to Chris Lowenstein, Chapter Secretary, c/o Book Hunter's Holiday, 3182 Campus Drive #205, San Mateo, CA 94403.

To apply for the NCC/ABAA Educational Scholarship, please provide the following:

- A completed copy of the application form.
- A personal statement or essay (no longer than two pages) in which you describe your past or current experience in the world of rare books, your goals for the future, and what you hope to gain from the studies afforded by this scholarship.
- Professional references or letters of recommendation are welcome, but not required.
