

The Andrew W. Mellon Fellowship for Diversity, Inclusion & Cultural Heritage

2022 Supervisor Approval Form

This form must be completed by the applicant's official supervisor.

By signing off on this form, I affirm that I understand that my supervisee is required to participate in the following program activities of the Andrew W. Mellon Fellowship for Diversity, Inclusion, & Cultural Heritage:

- In-person Orientation in April 2022.
- In-person attendance to RBS courses in 2022, 2023, 2024 (three weeks total during a period of three years).
- The RBMS Conference scheduled for June 2022 in New Haven, CT, as well as conference events of their choosing in 2023 and 2024.
- In years 2 and 3, attend one three- or four-day cultural heritage field school from those offered twice per year, travel permitting.

N.B.: In case that public health conditions do not permit safe travel or in-person gatherings, events will be held virtually. Fellows will be expected to participate in all events, whether virtual or in-person.

In addition, I affirm that I understand that my supervisee will be asked to host a public-facing symposium on multicultural heritage materials at our institution as part of the fellowship.

The RBS-Mellon Cultural Heritage Fellowship provides funds for travel and housing for all of these events, as well as tuition for RBS courses, and $2,500 in funds to host a symposium.

I do not anticipate any circumstances that will prevent my supervisee from participating in these program activities.

I also affirm that my supervisee is employed full time.
